At the atelier we don't use cadmium colors because of environmental damage caused by heavy metals. The above mentioned list of acrylic paint can normally last you for a year course! You will therefore use less for the half year course. You can also choose to buy 250cc bottles or tubes or 120cc for a broader color choice. For example: Prussian blue, indigo, cobalt, kraplak, magenta,, bright green, metallic bronze, silver, gold etc. . .Because we are generally using matt finish paint you can choose these extra colors from van Gogh (studio acrylic), Rembrandt (professional acrylic) or another brand. With metallics you can make your own choice. If your wallet allows you, I recommend purchasing the light blue (nr A251) and cerulean blue (nr. E39) because of the trueness of these colors making it easy for color mixing.

ARA acrylic paint is an A-quality professional paint for a relatively low price. When your budget doesn't allow for this paint then choose from one of the following the (In order of quality): Rowney Systeem 3, Amsterdam paint or Winsor & Newton (better). You can show the person helping you in the store this materials list to help you with the selection. Good stores in Amsterdam are:
